[NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

STATEMENT OF UNINTENTIONAL ABANDONMENT

Dear Sir:

This statement is to explain the delays, which has caused this application to be abandoned. A final rejection was mailed on February 11, 2008. This letter was not delivered to the Applicant and was returned to the patent office. The applicant never received this final rejection. On September 9, 2008, the Examiner called and inquired about the status of this case. Once the attorney of record learned of this situation, he immediately filed a change of address application and request time to properly respond to the application. Applicant did not respond to the final rejection because the final rejection was not delivered to the Applicant. The examiner knowing that the Applicant did not receive the final rejection chose to issue a Notice of Abandonment on the grounds that the Applicant failed to timely respond to the final rejection. We feel that this Notice of Abandonment was not warranted. Applicant respectfully requests that you strongly consider revival of this application. Thank you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Darcell Walker
